

Appendix A: Self-assessment form

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and it must be reviewed and approved by the landlord's governing body at least annually.

Once approved, landlords must publish the self-assessment as part of the annual complaints performance and service improvement report on their website. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.

Landlords are required to complete the self-assessment in full and support all statements with evidence, with additional commentary as necessary.

We recognise that there may be a small number of circumstances where landlords are unable to meet the requirements, for example, if they do not have a website. In these circumstances, we expect landlords to deliver the intentions of the Code in an alternative way, for example by publishing information in a public area so that it is easily accessible.

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: ‘an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.’	Yes	Evidence:            Complaints Policy - Section 3.1            ‘A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual resident or group of residents.’	This definition has been adopted and included within our Complaints Policy.            In practice, all staff are trained to recognise expressions of dissatisfaction and acknowledge these as complaints
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word ‘complaint’ for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord’s complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints Policy - Section 3.1            ‘An expression of dissatisfaction does not need to include the word complaint for it to be taken through this process’ Complaints Policy - Section 3.2            ‘We will treat every expression of dissatisfaction as a complaint, as per the Housing Ombudsman Code. 1.4	Landlords must recognise the difference between a service request and a complaint. This must be set out in their complaints policy. A service request is a request from a resident to the landlord requiring action to be taken to put something right. Service requests are not complaints, but must be recorded, monitored and reviewed regularly.	Yes	Complaints Policy - Section 3.2          'We recognise the difference between a service request, survey feedback and a formal complaint.' Complaints Policy - Section 3.3          'We will not accept stage 1 complaints and escalations to stage 2 about ... matters which are being raised for the first time, for example a repair which has not yet been reported'	Our Complaints Policy explicitly states that we will not accept matters being raised for the first time (including repairs) under our complaints policy. Where a resident raises a service request through the complaints process, they will be informed that it is a service request and supported accordingly. For example, if it is regarding a repair, we will raise an order to address this.
1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	Evidence:          Complaints Policy - Section 3.1          'A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction, about the standard of service'	We can evidence that we accept complaints about the standard of our service even when if the handling of the request remains ongoing, through a review of our complaints over 2024.

Section 2: Exclusions

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 3.3 We will not accept stage 1 complaints and escalations to stage 2 about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• issues which have had no impact on the complainant</li> <li>• matters which have already been considered through the complaints process</li> <li>• matters which happened more than 12 months before the complaint was raised</li> <li>• matters which are being raised for the first time, for example a repair which has not yet been reported</li> <li>• Matters that are under active litigation</li> </ul> Complaints Policy – Section 3.5	Our Complaints Policy clearly outlines the instances in which we will not address a complaint under our Complaints Policy. Where a complaint is excluded under our policy, we will provide an explanation to the resident why this is the case, and attempt to resolve their complaint as a general enquiry (or under another policy, such as ASB). Each complaint (or expression of dissatisfaction) is reviewed by the Resident Engagement and Resolution Officer

			If we have not accepted a complaint as it falls into one of the categories listed above, the resident will be informed in writing and given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service. Complaints Policy – Section 3.6 We will accept complaints from any of our residents regardless of tenure, though not from tenants of leaseholders, and also waiting list applicants who have met the eligibility criteria and have been accepted onto our list.	and considered on its own merits to determine whether a complaint can be resolved through our complaints procedure.
2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago.</li> <li>• Legal proceedings have started. 2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 3.5 If we have not accepted a complaint as it falls into one of the categories listed above, the resident will be informed in writing and given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service.	Where complaints are not accepted, the Housing Ombudsman’s details are provided, as well as an explanation and a copy of our Complaints Policy.
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	Each complaint (or expression of dissatisfaction) is reviewed by the Resident Engagement and Resolution Officer and considered on its own merits to determine whether a complaint can be resolved through our complaints procedure. ### Section 3: Accessibility and Awareness

3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 4 Residents can contact us through email, by telephone or in person. We have a dedicated feedback email address feedback@womenspioneer.co.uk WPH complaints policy and procedure will be easily accessible through our website. 			our Equality, Diversity and Inclusion Policy.
3.2	Residents must be able to raise their complaints in any way and with any member of staff. All staff must be aware of the complaints process and be able to pass details of the complaint to the appropriate person within the landlord.	Yes	Complaints Policy- Section 6  All staff involved in complaint handling will be trained in complaint handling and resolution and Equality, Diversity and Inclusion
3.3	High volumes of complaints must not be seen as a negative, as they can be indicative of a well-publicised and accessible complaints process. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 8  We monitor all complaints made and the outcomes will be used to drive Improvements to our services to residents. Improvements may be identified even where a complaint is not upheld.
3.4	Landlords must make their complaint policy available in a clear and accessible format for all residents. This will detail the two stage process, what will happen at each stage, and the timeframes for responding. The policy must also be published on the landlord's website.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 Section 5 of our complaints policy outlines the complaints procedure, and explains the two stage process. This also includes the timescales for each stage.	Our Complaint Policy is available on our website. Where residents complain the policy is signposted to them via a link to our website and also explained in our complaints correspondence. Our policy contains information on our two stage complaints process and timeframes for responding.

3.5	The policy must explain how the landlord will publicise details of the complaints policy, including information about the Ombudsman and this Code.	Yes	Complaints Policy - Section 4 WPH complaints policy and procedure will be easily accessible through our website. Our website will also publicise the Housing Ombudsman website, enabling residents to seek advice from the Housing Ombudsman at any stage. The complaints policy and process will also be publicised as required through other means e.g. Pioneer Press. A copy of the policy and procedure will be provided when requested.
3.6	Landlords must give residents the opportunity to have a representative deal with their complaint on their behalf, and to be represented or accompanied at any meeting with the landlord.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 4 If a representative or third party, such as an independent advocate, makes a complaint on your behalf, we will require written permission from you before corresponding with them. However, decision makers will always wish to hear from and seek to resolve any issues directly	Consent will always be obtained from the resident before a third party can complain on their behalf. ## Section 4: Complaint Handling Staff

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
4.1	Landlords must have a person or team assigned to take responsibility for complaint handling, including liaison with the Ombudsman and ensuring complaints are reported to the governing body (or equivalent). This Code will refer to that person or team as the 'complaints officer'. This role may be in addition to other duties.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 The Resident Engagement & Resolution Officer who reports to the Customer Service Manager will lead on complaint handling for WPH. They will work with teams to ensure that complaints are logged appropriately and ensure that complaints are properly managed and considered at each stage of the process.	The Resident Engagement and Resolution Officer (RERO) leads on handling complaints, and supports complaint respondents with logging and managing complaints. They also lead on resident engagement, including sending out complaint satisfaction surveys to residents.
4.2	The complaints officer must have access to staff at all levels to facilitate the prompt resolution of complaints. They must also have the authority and autonomy to act to resolve disputes promptly and fairly.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 The Resident Engagement & Resolution Officer who reports to the Customer Service Manager will lead on complaint handling for WPH. They will work with teams to ensure that complaints are logged appropriately and ensure that complaints are properly managed and considered at each stage of the process.	The RERO is fully embedded in the organisation, working closely with staff of all levels including the CEO, directors, middle management and officers. This is both in their complaints role, and as a part of their resident engagement responsibilities. The RERO has the authority and autonomy to allocate complaints to the most appropriate person in the organisation and to keep staff accountable for meeting complaint deadlines.

4.3	Landlords are expected to prioritise complaint handling and a culture of learning from complaints. All relevant staff must be suitably trained in the importance of complaint handling. It is important that complaints are seen as a core service and must be resourced to handle complaints effectively	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 8 8.1 We monitor all complaints made and the outcomes will be used to drive improvements to our services to residents. ## Section 5: The Complaint Handling Process

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
5.1	Landlords must have a single policy in place for dealing with complaints covered by this Code. Residents must not be treated differently if they complain.	Yes	We have a single complaints policy for all complaints from residents.
5.2	The early and local resolution of issues	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 between landlords and residents is key to effective complaint handling. It is not appropriate to have extra named stages (such as 'stage 0' or 'informal complaint') as this causes unnecessary confusion.		5.3 We will try to resolve any issues informally as quickly as possible. However, if any resident is not happy with our attempts to resolve the issue then they may pursue a formal complaint. We have a two stage formal complaints procedure.

5.3	A process with more than two stages is not acceptable under any circumstances as this will make the complaint process unduly long and delay access to the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.3 We have a two stage formal complaints procedure.	We have a 2 stage complaints process, which is fully outlined in section 5 of our complaints policy.
5.4	Where a landlord's complaint response is handled by a third party (e.g. a contractor or independent adjudicator) at any stage, it must form part of the two stage complaints process set out in this Code. Residents must not be expected to go through two complaints processes.	N/A	N/A	All complaints made to WPH are handled by WPH staff, including complaints made about contractors. Complaints are not handled by third parties.
5.5	Landlords are responsible for ensuring that any third parties handle complaints in line with the Code.	N/A	N/A	All complaints made to WPH are handled by WPH staff, including complaints made about contractors. Complaints are not handled by third parties.

5.6	When a complaint is logged at Stage 1 or escalated to Stage 2, landlords must set out their understanding of the complaint and the outcomes the resident is seeking. The Code will refer to this as “the complaint definition”. If any aspect of the complaint is unclear, the resident must be asked for clarification.	Yes	Stage 1 and Stage 2 acknowledgement email templates Stage 1 and Stage 2 response templates	We have templates for Stage 1 and Stage 2 acknowledgement emails, and Stage 1 and Stage 2 complaints which includes a summary of the complaint. The resident is given the opportunity to provide clarification where they feel the summary does not represent their complaint. If WPH are unclear of the issue, the RERO will ask for more details of the complaint to ensure the issue is resolved fully through the complaints procedure.
5.7	When a complaint is acknowledged at either stage, landlords must be clear which aspects of the complaint they are, and are not, responsible for and clarify any areas where this is not clear.	Yes	Stage 1 and Stage 2 acknowledgement template Complaints Policy – Section 3 3.3 We will not accept stage 1 complaints and escalations to stage 2 about: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• issues which have had no impact on the complainant</li> <li>• matters which have already been considered through the complaints process</li> <li>• matters which happened</li> </ul>	At the acknowledgement stage, if there any aspects of the complaint which WPH are not responsible for, this is explained to the resident in writing. 5.9	Where a response to a complaint will fall outside the timescales set out in this Code, the landlord must agree with the resident suitable intervals for keeping them informed about their complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.5 If further investigations are required this timeline may be extended, usually by no more than a further ten working days. We will let the complainant know if this is the case and will seek to agree a new timescale. Should an extension beyond a further ten working days be needed we will seek to agree a new timescale with the complainant. If an agreed timescale cannot be reached the resident will be given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service.	We will only ask residents for extensions in exceptional circumstances, for example where further investigation is required.
5.10	Landlords must make reasonable adjustments for residents where appropriate under the Equality Act	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 6 6.1 At all stages complaints will be considered fairly and impartially.	We will follow our Equality Diversity and Inclusion Policy through all stages of

Section 6: Complaints Stages

Stage 1

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
6.1	Landlords must have processes in place to consider which complaints can be responded to as early as possible, and which require further investigation. Landlords must consider factors such as the complexity of the complaint and whether the resident is vulnerable or at risk. Most stage 1 complaints can be resolved promptly, and an explanation, apology or resolution provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaint Policy – Section 5 5.1 Our aim throughout this procedure is to try to work with residents to resolve complaints as quickly and effectively as possible.	We respond to Stage 1 complaints within 10 working days. We will ensure that services will continued be delivered without delay, and prior to conclusion of the complaints process.
6.2	Complaints must be acknowledged, defined and logged at stage 1 of the complaints procedure within five working days of the complaint being received.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.4 Stage 1: At stage one, we will acknowledge your complaint within five working days	Complaints are logged and acknowledged within 5 working days. The acknowledgement will contain a summary of the main components of the complaint, the name and role of the complaint handler, and the date the will receive the complaint response by.
6.3	Landlords must issue a full response to stage 1 complaints within 10 working days of the complaint being	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.4 Stage 1: At stage one, we will acknowledge your complaint	Complaints are responded to within 10 working days of the complaint being acknowledged.		within five working days, complaints will be responded to by the most suitable person, which may or may not be a Manager, within ten working days of the date your complaint was acknowledged.	acknowledged. Residents are informed of the date by which they will receive their response.

6.4	Landlords must decide whether an extension to this timescale is needed when considering the complexity of the complaint and then inform the resident of the expected timescale for response. Any extension must be no more than 10 working days without good reason, and the reason(s) must be clearly explained to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.5 If further investigations are required this timeline may be extended, usually by no more than a further ten working days. We will let the complainant know if this is the case and will seek to agree a new timescale. Should an extension beyond a further ten working days be needed we will seek to agree a new timescale with the complainant. If an agreed timescale cannot be reached the resident will be given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service.	Extensions are only requested by the complaint handler in exceptional circumstances; for example, where further investigation of the complaint is needed. When the timescale needs to be extended, the resident is informed of this and given a new date by which they will receive a response.
6.5	When an organisation informs a resident about an extension to these timescales, they must be provided with the contact details of the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.5 If further investigations are required this timeline may be extended, usually by no more than a further ten working days. If an agreed timescale cannot be reached the resident will be given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service.
6.6	A complaint response must be provided to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue are completed. Outstanding actions must still be tracked and actioned promptly with appropriate updates provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.9 We will monitor to ensure the actions we have promised as part of the resolution have been completed following the complaint being closed.	We will respond to the complaint within our timeframe, and ensure that any outstanding actions are completed.
6.7	Landlords must address all points raised in the complaint definition and provide clear reasons for any decisions, referencing the relevant policy, law and good practice where appropriate.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 6 6.3 Decisions will supported by reasons. All decisions will include reference to the right to refer the complaint to the Housing Ombudsman Service. Our website includes a link to the HOS website so residents can consult HOS at any time.	The main components of a complaint are outlined at each stage of the complaint, which ensures that complaint handlers understand the complaint and address each point. Each aspect of the complaint is responded to by the complaint handler and an explanation is given for each outcome.

6.8	Where residents raise additional complaints during the investigation, these must be incorporated into the stage 1 response if they are related and the stage 1 response has not been issued. ## Stage 2

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
6.10	If all or part of the complaint is not resolved to the resident's satisfaction at stage 1, it must be progressed to stage 2 of the landlord's procedure. Stage 2 is the landlord's final response.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.6 If any issues are not resolved, residents will be invited to escalate to Stage 2 within one month of receiving the Stage 1 response	Residents are informed of their right to escalate their Stage 1 complaint within the Stage 1 response.
6.11	Requests for stage 2 must be acknowledged, defined and logged at stage 2 of the complaints procedure within five working days of the escalation request being received.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.7 Stage 2: We will acknowledge your stage 2 complaint within five working days.	Complaints are logged and acknowledged within 5 working days. The acknowledgement will contain a summary of the main components of the complaint, the name and role of the complaint handler, and the date the will receive the complaint response by.

6.12	Residents must not be required to explain their reasons for requesting a stage 2 consideration. Landlords are expected to make reasonable efforts to understand why a resident remains unhappy as part of its stage 2 response.	Yes	Stage 2 acknowledgement template	Residents are invited to escalate their complaints to Stage 2 at any expression of dissatisfaction at the Stage 1 response. A summary of the complaint as understood by WPH is written and given to the resident, who is then encouraged to amend it if they feel it is not representative of their Stage 2 complaint.
6.13	The person considering the complaint at stage 2 must not be the same person that considered the complaint at stage 1.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.7 Complaints at stage two will usually be considered by a more senior manager than at stage one. If a member of SMT handled your complaint at Stage 1, it will be considered by a different member of SMT at Stage 2.	Stage 2 complaints are allocated to a different person than the person who investigated it at Stage 1.
6.14	Landlords must issue a final response to the stage 2 within 20 working days of the complaint being acknowledged.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.7 The manager handling the complaint at stage two will usually arrange a phone call with the complainant and then seek to send a formal written response within twenty working days of the date your stage 2 complaint was acknowledged.	Complaints are responded to within 20 working days of the complaint being acknowledged. Residents are informed of the date by which they will receive their response.

6.15	Landlords must decide whether an extension to this timescale is needed when considering the complexity of the complaint and then inform the resident of the expected timescale for response. Any extension must be no more than 20 working days without good reason, and the reason(s) must be clearly explained to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.7 If further investigations are required this may be extended, usually by no more than ten working days. Should an extension beyond a further ten working days be needed we will seek to agree a new timescale with the complainant.	Extensions are only requested by the complaint handler in exceptional circumstances; for example, where further investigation of the complaint is needed. When the timescale needs to be extended, the resident is informed of this and given a new date by which they will receive a response.
6.16	When an organisation informs a resident about an extension to these timescales, they must be provided with the contact details of the Ombudsman.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.7 If an agreed timescale cannot be reached the resident will be given the opportunity to take that decision to the Housing Ombudsman Service.	Residents are provided with the Housing Ombudsman Service’s details at all stages of the complaint, including when an extension is required.
6.17	A complaint response must be provided to the resident when the answer to the complaint is known, not when the outstanding actions required to address the issue are completed. Outstanding actions must still be tracked and actioned promptly with appropriate updates provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy – Section 5 5.9 We will monitor to ensure the actions we have promised as part of the resolution have been completed following the complaint being closed.	We will respond to the complaint within our timeframe, and ensure that any outstanding actions are completed.
6.18	Landlords must address all points raised in the complaint definition and provide clear reasons for any decisions, referencing the relevant policy, law and good practice where appropriate.
